

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

1880, ch. 129.

46. The provisions of sections 241 to 245, of article 4, of the public local laws, title "City of Baltimore," relating to "Cruelty to Animals," shall apply to Howard county as fully as if repeated in this article.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 13, sec. 22. 1868, ch. 388.

47. Howard county is divided into six election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of said election districts at the places now established by law for that purpose.

Ibid. sec. 23.

48. The judges and clerks of elections shall each receive three dollars a day for each day they shall be engaged in the discharge of their respective duties.

ELLICOTT CITY.

1867, ch. 48.

49. The inhabitants of the town of Ellicott's Mills, in Howard and Baltimore counties, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of "The Mayor and City Council of Ellicott City," and by that name may sue and be sued, purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and may have and use a common seal.

Ibid.

50. The limits of said city shall be as follows, viz: commencing at the Arch bridge in Baltimore county, on the Frederick turnpike road, below the Patapsco flour mills, and from thence running up and with Cooper's branch to the division line between the property of the Granite manufacturing company and John Cavanaugh; thence by a straight line to Major Peter's gate, on the Patapsco Institute road; thence from said point with a straight line to a point on the Jonestown road, where the line of Major Peter and Gervard Manisher intersect; thence from said point by a straight line to the northwest corner of the house now occu-
